

Social emotional development

Social emotional development

- I look at people
- I really like to look at faces
- I can be comforted by my caregiver
- I can let you know when I've had enough

Social emotional development

- I get upset when you leave the room or when new people come near
- I can play peek-a-boo
- I like cuddling games
- I'm finding ways to get you to come to me

Social emotional development

- I get excited when I see whānau
- I can smile and copy some mouth movements
- I can comfort myself like sucking my thumb
- I can cry to let you know I need something

Social emotional development

- I know the difference between familiar people and strangers
- I watch and copy what others do
- I can show affection and annoyance

Social emotional development

Social emotional development

- I can be calm, happy and chatty when I see familiar people
- I can laugh
- I like it when you give me attention
- I stop crying when my whānau come near

Social emotional development

- I can say "NO"
- I can imitate your actions – like sweeping or using a cell phone
- I can look after myself better – drinking, eating and taking off my clothes
- I try to comfort others

Social emotional development

- I can follow 3 to 5 simple rules
- I can start my own game
- I can play with other kids
- I can brush my teeth, wash my hands and get dressed and undressed

Notes
