

What's Happening...

Pēpi Says:

I'm showing my feelings very clearly. When I am happy, I like to awhi and kihi my whānau.

When I'm hōhā, I might start hitting, scratching, crying and grizzling.

I'll be moving freely, maybe crawling, pulling myself to stand, walking holding on to things – furniture, people!

Or I might be walking without help.

I like to get in and around things. Crawling under tables and chairs, getting into boxes and anywhere I see an opening.

I like to try and feed myself. Look at me!
