I'm great at picking up little items using my thumb and index finger – kai, small toys, bits of fluff, stones. Yep, I'm a little vacuum cleaner!

I'm starting to understand and respond to more kupu. I'm even saying some too.

When I want something, I let my whānau know by pointing to it and they watch me and work out what I want.

I copy what people say and words I hear. So, kia tūpato whānau! I'm a sponge.
