

Whānau Say:

We have started to give finger foods. They love the chance to feed themselves.

They like to practice new motor skills too, over and over and over again!

We try and name everything pēpi sees, because they understand lots more kupu than they can say.

What might pēpi be thinking?

What part of 'Ba ma da ba' do they not understand?

